For your Diary

April 6	Timothy Long & his solo round Britain trip
May 11	'London's Most Important River' presented by Jeremy Batch
June 1	Treasure Hunt with Eb

Commodore's Column

On 29th March I can see my family again by going for a walk with them AND I can go dinghy sailing again – yippee – let me out! I'm sure I am not the only one and that we're all looking forward to gradually resuming some of the activities we love. Releasing us from lockdown is going to be a slow process so I am so glad that NOSCA has taken out a Zoom subscription enabling us to enjoy some really interesting talks. One of the great benefits of Zoom is that we can have speakers from ANYWHERE! I am really looking forward to hearing from young Timothy about his sail around the UK and equally looking forward to learning more about the history of a London river I have not really been aware of before.

I hope you have both the April and May talks in your diaries (please note that May's is on the 2nd Tuesday, 11th, rather than the first) and please do take the opportunity to invite any friends who you think might be interested in the talks – regardless of whether they are sailors or not! You don't need to get permission so when you are sent the zoom link just forward it on to your friends. To enable us to be a friendly club it would be nice if you could let us know the names of any friends joining us but there's no need to worry if for any reason you don't – you might only have sent them the link a few minutes before the meeting for instance!

I look forward to seeing you all again on zoom – and in person at Eb's treasure hunt in June!
Happy Easter everyone!
Mary

Deadline for the May copy will be Sunday night, April 25th please.
